About NHIA

The National Home Infusion Association (NHIA) is the trade association representing companies that provide medically necessary infusion therapies to patients in alternate sites, as well as companies that manufacture and supply infusion and specialty pharmacy products. The association's mission is to provide advocacy, education, and resources to the infusion provider community so the patients they serve can lead healthy, independent lives. For more information, visit conference.nhia.org.

NHIA's Annual Conference is the premier event for the rapidly growing home and alternate site infusion industry.

NHIA 2025 will bring together:

- Business owners, executives and seasoned industry professionals seeking the year's best networking and leadership education.
- Pharmacists, technicians, infusion nurses, dietitians, reimbursement specialists, sales & marketing professionals, operations and support staff seeking to improve company operations and on-the-job knowledge.
- Physicians and health system administrators seeking the latest information and trends in home infusion.
- Nurses, pharmacists and pharmacy technicians from outside the alternate site infusion industry looking to earn CE, expand skill sets, discover new career opportunities, or explore business opportunities related to starting a home infusion practice or infusion suite.

We hope you will join us and 1,600 infusion professionals in the Washington, D.C. area from March 29 to April 2, 2025.

Why Exhibit?

Access

1,600 home, alternate site and specialty infusion professionals in one location!

Learn

Exhibitors have full conference* access and can attend all educational sessions and networking events as well as engage with attendees to better understand the most pressing challenges for providers. We offer pre-conference workshops that can be added to your general conference access for executives/leaders or for those looking for more information on sterile compounding.

Ticketed events and Sterile Compounding Clinic excluded*

Network

Expand your network and nurture existing relationships. Join discussions or host your own and interact with attendees during dedicated time in the NHIA Expo and at education and networking events.

Influence
